

ACLS Precourse Instructions (Required!)

This document provides instructions on how to prepare for your ACLS course, and how to access the REQUIRED PRECOURSE TEST THAT MUST BE COMPLETED PRIOR TO CLASS.

Address for Class:

CPR Tampa
39336 US Highway 19 North
Tarpon Springs, FL 34689

Arrive on Time:

Please plan to arrive on time because it will be difficult for late students to catch up once we start. Students are expected to attend and participate in the entire course. If you arrive later than 15 minutes after class start time you will be asked to reschedule.

How to Prepare:

- Review and understand the information in your ACLS Provider Manual. Please review all of the sections throughout the manual.
- Pay particular attention to the following sections below listed in the table of contents:
  - Systematic Approach: BLS Assessment, Primary and Secondary Assessments
  - Acute Coronary Syndromes
  - Acute Stroke
  - Bradycardia
  - Tachycardia: Stable and Unstable
  - Respiratory Arrest
  - Cardiac Arrest: VF/pVT
  - Cardiac Arrest: PEA and Asystole
  - Post-Cardiac Arrest Care
- Throughout the ACLS provider manual there are treatment algorithms. There is one for each specific condition/emergency. Become familiar with all the treatment algorithms throughout the ACLS Provider Manual.
- You will be expected to recognize cardiac rhythms and understand ACLS pharmacology. These topics are not taught in this course.

You Must:

1. Complete and Print your required Precourse Self-Assessment.
2. Score a 70% or higher on your Precourse Self-Assessment in order to attend class.

How to Create an Account with the AHA, Access, and Complete Your Required Precourse Self-Assessment

Step #1

Create an eLearning account with the AHA. Go to <https://elearning.heart.org>

If you already have an AHA account then login. If you DO NOT have an AHA account, click on the top right where it says, “Sign up”. Then “Create an Account” as a New User, and Sign In.

*SAVE YOUR ACCOUNT LOGIN INFORMATION!

Step #2

After you have logged in, this is what should appear on the screen. This will bring up all the courses offered in eLearning. Scroll Down and locate the course that says “ACLS Precourse Assessment” and hit LAUNCH THIS COURSE. (*NOTE: Do Not select “ACLS Precourse Assessment and Precourse Work”)

IMPORTANT! If you are being prompted to watch videos you are in the WRONG pre-course assessment course.

(Course code is KJ-1921)

The screenshot shows the American Heart Association eLearning website. The top navigation bar includes the AHA logo, a search bar, and language selection (EN). Below the navigation is a breadcrumb trail: Home / Courses. The main title is "Course Catalog". On the left, a "Filter" sidebar lists course categories with checkboxes: CE Credit Course, All courses (which is checked), Basic Life Support (BLS), Advanced Cardiovascular Life Support (ACLS), Instructor Updates, Pediatric Advanced Life Support (PALS), Healthcare Professional, CPR & AED for Non-Healthcare Professionals, Heartsaver, and First Aid. A "Clear All" link is also present. To the right of the filter is a search bar with the placeholder "Search course name" and a magnifying glass icon. Below the search bar, it says "112 Results Found". The course list displays six cards, each representing a different course:

- 2020 ACLS Precourse Self-Assessment: Free course, Not Started.
- 2020 ACLS Precourse Self-Assessment and Precourse Work: Not Started.
- 2020 PALS Precourse Self-Assessment: Free course.
- 2020 PALS Precourse Self-Assessment and Precourse Work: Not Started.
- 2020 PALS Instructor Update: Not Started.
- 2020 ACLS Instructor Update: Not Started.

Step #3

After you launch the course, this is the screen you will see next. Click START to begin the assessment. Please note, you can save and return to complete the pre-course assessment at any time. You do NOT have to complete this in one session. You must save your login information to access your course again.

The screenshot shows the American Heart Association eLearning website. At the top, there is a logo for "American Heart Association eLearning" featuring a red heart with a flame. To the right are links for "EC" (dropdown), "Q" (search), and "EN" (language dropdown). Below the header are navigation links for "Courses", "About eLearning", "Support", and "Get Involved". The main content area is titled "ACLS Precourse Self-Assessment". It features a thumbnail image of a laptop displaying the "ACLS Advanced Cardiovascular Life Support" logo. To the right of the thumbnail is a button labeled "Self" and a warning message: "Expiration Date : November 12th 2027". Below the thumbnail, a description states: "The Advanced Cardiovascular Life Support (ACLS) Precourse Self-Assessment is an online tool that evaluates a student's knowledge before the course to determine their proficiency and identify any need for additional review and practice in 3 sections: rhythm recognition, pharmacology, and practical application." A blue box at the bottom left contains the text: "Attention: Please read the course description completely before starting the course." To the right of this box is a red "X" button. A "Course Description" section follows, with the heading "Welcome to the ACLS Precourse Self-Assessment." Below this, a list of things to know before taking the course includes: "All students must complete the Precourse Self-Assessment and achieve a score of at least 70% before taking the ACLS Course." and "Students must print their scoring report and bring it with them to class." At the bottom left, there is a note: "Select the START button below to begin." On the right side, there is a "Resources" sidebar with links to "Intraosseous Access", "Coping with Death", "ACLS Supplementary Materi...", and "ACLS Precourse Preparatio...".

Step #4

After you have completed the pretest, you must print this page with your score.

Click the "Exit Exercise" button at the upper right part of the page.

Under the Action section, you can click the link to print your completion certificate.
